They also have friends that are interested in being on the Board. The Committee wants to know the status of the two candidates Office of Boards and Commissions Director Joel Day mentioned. Dr. Day previously stated that the candidates who were interested in the CRB applied with the Mayor's Office. Committee Chair Nieto-Senour stated that she met with staff from Councilmember Monica Montgomery's office and was informed that they had three potential candidates. Details are pending. Dr. Day confirmed that the 4th District Office did not have three candidates.

The Board expressed concerns about feeling out of the loop when it comes to the selection process of new members. Member Doug Case requested having Council Members refer interested candidates to the Committee. The Committee will create a process that would vet the candidates. The Committee would like to become more involved in the selection process. Member Doug Case agreed to create a flow chart of the proposed candidate selection process. Dr. Day stated that the new appointment process involves all department liaisons and that Executive Directors will serve as the point of contact for all appointments and re-appointments. Then upon approval the candidates will be returned to the Board for training. Committee Chair Nieto-Senour would like to have a minimum of four participants attend the training.

Doug Case proposed dividing the Training Academy into three parts: (1) Pre-Appointment (2) Post Appointment-prior to being approved and (3) Post Confirmation.

- B. Marketing/Outreach: Member Doug Case suggested planning an Orientation Training Session. The event can be mass marketed on social media platforms to various organizations, council offices, and planning boards. The Board would like to encourage all the council members to attend or send a representative from their office - preferably the Chief of Staff.
